3. Demographic details

Demographic exercises undertaken in 2018 identified a requirement for 42 new schools to be established between 2019 and 2022 including a new 600 pupil post-primary school to serve the Ballincollig school planning area, to be established in 2021.

The analysis which informed the decision to establish the new school was predicated on the 2017 enrolment base, being the most recent available enrolment data at the time of the exercise.

There are two post-primary schools in this school planning area. The 2017 enrolment at these schools was 2,135. The equivalent 2019 enrolment was 2,181.

In order to identify additional school accommodation requirements analysis was undertaken in respect of:

- underlying demographic trends in the existing population;
- potential school place requirements associated with Additional Residential Development (ARD) in the area including any development arising from the Local Infrastructure Housing Activation Fund (LIHAF); and
- current or planned spare capacity in existing post-primary schools in the area.

Demographics:

The estimated peak year was 2027 with projected enrolments of 2,894. On that basis it was estimated that there will be a requirement for an additional 759 places by 2027.

Additional Residential Development:

A demand for 62 post-primary school places was estimated to be associated with Additional Residential Development in the school planning area and a further requirement for an estimated 119 post-primary school places was associated with an approved LIHAF project.

Gross School Place Requirements:

The peak gross additional school place requirements in the school planning area were, therefore, projected to be 940, being peak demographics and total ARD requirements combined, as the total ARD was expected to materialise by the peak demographic year.

Spare Capacity:

A project at Ballincollig Community College (RN: 71386O) was projected to deliver an additional 217 post-primary school places in the school planning area.

Net School Place Requirements:

Having considered the spare capacity in the school planning area, a net school place requirement of 723 was determined to remain to 2027.

Determination:

Given the net post primary school place requirement to 2027 it was determined that a new post-primary school should be established in Ballincollig in 2021. While the school was initially announced as a 600 pupil school, on consideration of emerging demand it has been determined that the size of the school should be increased to have the potential to cater for 1,000 pupils.

New school requirements have continued to be kept under review in the interim and an update of the demographic projections for all school planning areas was undertaken in 2020. This refreshed data upheld the requirement for the new Ballincollig post-primary school.

4. Assessment of Applications

All patrons have agreed to the Patronage Commitments as set out in the Section D of the Patronage Application Form attached to main report.

The invitation letter to patrons, also attached to the main report, sets out in detail the:

- Arrangements for the Establishment and Patronage of New Post-Primary Schools due to open in September 2021; and
- General Information for Prospective Patrons.

^{*}Ethos: Inter-D = Inter-denominational

There are two post-primary schools in the school planning area, both have an interdenominational ethos.

One of the two proposed models would facilitate multi-denominational provision in the area.

Adjoining School Planning Areas

There are six school planning areas adjoining the Ballincollig school planning area, with 24 post-primary schools as set out in the table below:

(ii) Gaelcholáistí/Irish-medium Aonaid (Post-Primary Level)

The following are details of any Irish-medium Gaelcholáistí or, where relevant, English-medium schools with an Irish-medium Unit (Aonad) within the school planning area, and in the adjoining school planning areas.

A) Within the school planning area

While there are no Gaelcholáistí in the school planning area. There is one post-primary school (Coláiste Choilm) with an Irish-medium Aonad (known as Gaelcholáiste Choilm) within the school planning area.

B) In adjoining school planning areas

There are four Gaelcholaistí within the adjoining school planning areas as follows:

Roll No	School Name	School Type	School planning area	Patron	Ethos*	Enrolment 2019/20	Approx. distance from centre of Ballincollig
762730	Gaelcholáiste Charraig Uí Leighin	Irish	Carrigaline	Cork Education and Training Board	Multi-D	118	19.7km

^{*}Ethos: Multi-D = Multi-denominational

Attached at Appendix A to this report is a map of the school planning area and surrounding areas, including the locations of the above Irish-medium schools for information. Ballincollig town was chosen as the mid-point of the map given that the location of the new school is not yet known.

4.2.2 Parental Preferences

Breakdown of valid first preferences by language preference

Language Preference	An Foras Pátrúnad		Le Chéile Schools Trust		Total Preferences
English	36		488		524
Irish	135		7		142

No Preference	13		8		21
Total first preferences	184		503		687

^{*}In order to have more clarity in relation to a parental preference for Irish-medium education at post-primary level, an additional question was added to this OPPS survey. For those parents who indicated a preference for Irish-medium in response to the question on their preferred language for the new school, the following question was also asked: "If you selected Irish as your language preference, would you consider sending your child to an Aonad (Irish-language unit) in an English-language school in the event that a Gaelcholáiste (Irish-language school) was not established in the area?". The options were "yes" or "no". An information box providing a short description of Aonaid was also provided.

The level of parental preferences for Irish-medium instruction is moderate (142 or 20.67% of first preferences) compared with 524 (76.27%) of preferences for English-medium while 21 (or 3.06%) of parents did not specify a preference in relation to language.

The two gaelscoileanna in the Ballincollig school planning area are located up to 3.2 km from the Aonad at Coláiste Choilm. Gaelscoil an Chaisleáin was established in 2017 and has yet to grow to have a 6th class. Gaelscoil Uí Riordáin had an enrolment of 99 6th class pupils in 2019/20.

The Department understands from the school patron of Coláiste Choilm, Cork ETB, that currently, circa. 70% of the students from Gaelscoil Uí Riordáin and circa. 30% on average of the students from Gaelscoil Uí Riada apply to enrol in the Aonad in Coláiste Choilm and that to date all applicants from Gaelscoil Uí Riordáin and from Gaelscoil Uí Riada who have applied for a place in the Aonad at Coláiste Choilm have been accommodated (however, not all applicants for English-medium places can be accommodated currently). If the same percentage of students in each year from Gaelscoil an Chaisleáin will seek to enrol in the Aonad as currently transfer from Gaelscoil Uí Riordáin, this would work out at circa. 20 students per year according to the school patron, Cork ETB. Cork ETB estimates that in order to fully satisfy the demand for places in an Irish-medium setting, the Aonad will need to be able to accommodate 100 students annually with a full capacity of 600 students.

There were 200 pupils in sixth class in total in the 6 gaelscoileanna located in the adjoining school planning areas in 2019/20. All of these gaelscoileanna are located closer to an existing Gaelcholáiste than they are to Ballincollig.

An Foras Pátrúnachta is the only applicant patron to propose an Irish-medium school while the other applicant patron, Le Chéile Schools Trust proposes an English-medium school and is willing to offer an Irish-medium school if demand exists for same. Le Chéile Schools Trust has confirmed it is willing to open an Aonad should the demand require it.

5. Conclusions

- All patrons have confirmed that they will satisfy the requirements as set out by the Department for the patronage of new schools.
- One of the models would increase provision for diversity in the area by providing multi-denominational provision in the area. Ballincollig Community School is under the joint patronage of Cork Education and Training Board and the Bishop of Cork and Ross. Coláiste Choilm is a designated Community College under the patronage of Cork Education and Training Board with the Bishop of Cork and Ross as trustee partner and is classified as having an inter-denominational ethos. Cork ETB has indicated that there is general recognition of the multi-denominational character of both Coláiste Choilm and the Community School.
- > Le Chéile received the highest number of valid first preference votes i.e. 503.
- The level of parental preferences for Irish-medium instruction was 142 of 687 valid first preferences (20.67%) compared with 524 of 687 valid first preferences (76.27%) for English-medium instruction. There is a significantly sized Aonad within Coláiste Choilm, Gaelcholáiste Choilm, which currently has an enrolment of circa.390 pupils. The school patron, Cork Education and Training Board, has indicated that Gaelcholáiste Choilm is prepared to expand further to increase Irish-medium provision, should additional demand materialise and that the flexibility afforded by the Aonad model within Coláiste Choilm would allow for this. It is expected therefore that the level of demand for Irish-medium education can continue to be accommodated in Coláiste Choilm.
- The Department understands from the school patron that there are no plans currently for the Aonad to seek to transition to a standalone Gaelcholáiste at this time. The Department would be open to consideration of such a transition under the patronage of Cork ETB or under joint patronage.
- Based on the results of the parental preferences and broader analysis, including the extent of diversity currently available in this and the adjoining school planning areas, the analysis indicates that the patronage of the new post-primary school for the Ballincollig school planning area should be awarded to Le Chéile to provide a denominational Voluntary Secondary School with English as the language of instruction. The Department recognises that there is a reported multi-denominational character within Coláiste Choilm in particular, and, given the outcome of the OPPS process for this area, notes the potential for discussion between Cork Education and Training Board as patron and the Bishop of Cork and Ross as trustee partner to engage in relation to further strengthening the multi-denominational character of Coláiste Choilm to ensure that such needs are met in the community.
