where creditors of the transferor Company before the Merger will have the same rights and obligations following the Merger, but in relation to the Successor Company, not the Transferor Company.

(8). The claims of existing creditors of the Successor Company will not be impacted as a result of the Merger. In accordance with Regulation 15 of the Irish Merger Regulations, creditors of the Successor Company who at the date of publication of notices in Ireland in relation to the filing of the Draft Terms of Merger with the CRO, are entitled to any debt or claim against the Successor Company, are entitled to be heard in relation to the confirmation by the Irish High Court of the Merger.

(9). In accordance with Article 2:316 paragraph 1 DCC, at least one of the Transferor Company and the Successor Company must provide security or other safeguards for the satisfaction of the claim of any creditor of the Transferor Company and the Successor Company who demands the same, failing which the action of opposition as referred to in Paragraph 10 below shall succeed. This shall not apply if the creditor's claim is sufficiently secured or if the financial condition of the Successor Company after the Merger will provide no fewer safeguards for satisfaction of the claim than previously.

(10). In accordance with Article 2:316 paragraph 2 DCC each creditor may oppose the proposed Merger by an application to the Dutch district court specifying the requested safeguards up to one month after the day on which both the Transferor Company and the Successor Company have given notice of the filing or publication of the Draft Terms of Merger. The Dutch district court shall disallow the request if the petitioner has not shown prima facie that the financial condition of the Successor Company after the Merger will provide fewer safeguards for the settlement of the claim and that inadequate safeguards were obtained from the legal person.

(11). Full information on the arrangements made for the exercise of the rights of creditors may be obtained free of charge by applying in writing to the Transferor Company or the Successor Company at their respective registered offices as specified above (please use reference 'Adealar Merger').

(12). Copies of the Common Draft Terms of Merger and the Directors' Explanatory Report prepared by the boards of directors of the Transferor Company and the Successor Company are available also no minority members in the Successor Company.

(7). As a result of the Merger all assets and liabilities of the Transferor Company shall be transferred to the Successor Company upon the Merger becoming effective. Following completion of the Merger, the Transferor Company will be dissolved without going into liquidation and the Successor Company will continue the activities of the Transferor Company. Therefore, creditors of the Transferor Company will become creditors of the Successor Company as a result of the Merger. Persons who were creditors of the Transferor Company before the Merger will have the same rights and obligations following the Merger, but in relation to the Successor Company, not the Transferor Company.

(8). The claims of existing creditors of the Successor Company will not be impacted as a result of the Merger.
