Department of Finance Privacy Notice

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) took effect from 25 May 2018.

Under the GDPR, data subjects have greater control over their personal data by setting out new and more clearly defined rights for data subjects whose personal data is collected and processed. The GDPR also imposes increased obligations on organisations that control and process personal data. At the centre of the GDPR is the requirement for organisations to be fully transparent about how they are using and safeguarding personal data, and to be able to demonstrate accountability for their data processing activities.

The Department of Finance is committed to protecting the rights and privacy of all its data subjects in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018.

The General Data Protection Regulation defines personal data as:

“...any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (‘data subject’); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person”

Data Protection Officer

The Department's Data Protection Officer is Ms. Ailish Farrelly who can be contacted at dataprotection@finance.gov.ie or by post to:

Principles relating to processing of personal data

The Department of Finance will ensure that any processing of personal data is in compliance with the principles relating to processing. Article 5 of the GDPR provides the following principles of processing of personal data:

1. 'Lawfulness, fairness and transparency'

Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to the data subject.

2. 'Purpose limitation'

Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes.

3. 'Data minimisation'

Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed.

4. 'Accuracy'

Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which it is processed, is erased or rectified without delay.

5. 'Storage limitation'

Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed.

6. 'Integrity and Confidentiality'

Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate or organisational measures.

7. 'Accountability'

The controller shall be responsible for, and be able to demonstrate compliance with the other principles.
