

Sensitivity: Normal

CAUTION: This email originated from an external source. Do not click links or open attachments unless the sender is known.

Dear Minister

Trinity College Dublin
The McCarthy Report

Trinity is a world acknowledged, renowned and respected University; this has been achieved by its independence.

To change this so that it is no longer managed under its present constitution would undermine its reputation and independence of thought.

I object to the proposed changes.

Your sincerely

A black rectangular redaction box covering the signature area.