

Hi,

I have read and understood the observations made related to my application for seaweed harvesting. I accept all observations and will fully comply with all recommendations. With reference to the observation by The Department of Ag, Food & The Marine; our planning notice was published Regionally and Nationally. Is this not sufficient notice of intent for The Tralee Bay Oyster Society? If not how do you advise I approach them?

Thanks,