

Remit and details of expert panel established by Government to assist in the selection process

The expert panel consists of:

- Mr Justice Nial Fennelly, former Supreme Court Judge and former Advocate General of the Court of Justice from 1995 to 2000, who will act as Chairperson to the Panel;
- Mr Paul Gallagher S.C. Attorney General of Ireland; and
- Professor Imelda Maher, Sutherland Professor of European Law and Dean of the Law Faculty, UCD.

The expert panel has been requested to:

- Invite expressions of interest by public advertisement for nomination by the Government to the position of a Judge of the General Court of the European Union.
- Consider expressions of interest, and
- Provide its recommendations on suitable candidates for nomination to the post of a Judge of the General Court of the European Union for decision of the Government.

The panel will be required to establish their own procedures for inviting and assessing the expressions of interest from interested applicants.

It should be noted that the nominee for appointment as Judge of the General Court will be interviewed by the EU's Article 255 panel to assess their suitability.
