

Dear Minister.

Please accept this e-mail as my desire to introduce a statutory body for counsellors and psychotherapists in Ireland. It is my true feelings that the field of counselling and psychotherapy should be regulated under the Health and Social Care Professionals Act to ensure protection for the general public and our trained professionals.

Regards

Declan Balfe