

FISHERIES—IRELAND.

32 & 33 Vic., c. 92, and the Acts incorporated therewith.

SKIBBEREEN DISTRICT.

ROURY RIVER, County Cork.

WHEREAS, by the "Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1869," it is amongst other things enacted that the Inspectors of Irish Fisheries shall make local and other inquiry into the expediency and necessity of altering, amending, or repealing any definition of the boundaries of the Mouth or Estuary of any River heretofore made; and, if on such inquiry they shall be satisfied of such expediency or necessity, it shall be lawful for them, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, and an appeal to him in Council, to alter, amend, or repeal any such definition. And whereas the Special Commissioners of Irish Fisheries did, on the 25th day of April, 1865, make the definition of the boundaries of the Mouth of the RIVER ROURY, in the County of CORK, by a straight line drawn in a North-Easterly direction from the Easternmost point at High-water Mark of Equinoctial Spring Tides in the Townland of BALLINACLOGH, Parish of ROSS, Barony of EAST CARBERY (West Division), and County of CORK, to a point on the opposite Shore, in the Townland of DOWNEEN, aforesaid Parish, Barony, and County:

Now we, the Inspectors of Irish Fisheries, acting under the powers and authorities given to us by the said recited Act, having made local and other inquiry into the expediency of altering, amending, or repealing the said definition of the boundaries of the Mouth of the said ROURY RIVER, in the County of CORK, so heretofore made, do hereby repeal the said definition, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

Given under our Hands this 8th day of July, 1873.

THOS. F. BRADY,
JOHN A. BLAKE,
JOS. HAYES,

Inspectors of Irish Fisheries.

Dated at the Office of Irish Fisheries, 12, Ely-place, Dublin.
