What is the One-Parent Family Payment?

One-Parent Family Payment (OFP) is a payment to men and women under 66 years of age who are bringing up children without the support of a partner.

Who can get One-Parent Family Payment?

To qualify for a One-Parent Family Payment (OFP), you must meet these conditions:

- Be under 66 years of age (at 66 you become eligible for the State Pension).
- Be the parent, step-parent, adoptive parent or legal guardian of a relevant child (this means a child under the relevant age limit - seven), who normally lives with you,
- Be the main carer of at least one relevant child. You cannot get OFP if you have joint equal custody of a child or children.
- Satisfy a means test, and
- Not be living with a spouse, civil partner or cohabiting.

If you are separated, divorced or your civil partnership is dissolved, you must have been living apart for at least three months before you apply for OFP. You have to make efforts to seek maintenance from the other parent of the child.

How do I apply?

Widowed or a surviving civil partner
If you are widowed or a surviving civil partner, you should apply within three months of your spouse’s or civil partner’s death.

Single
If you are single, you should apply within three months of the birth of your child.

Separated, divorced or no longer in a civil partnership
If you are separated, divorced or no longer in a civil partnership, you must have been living apart for three months. You should apply within three to six months of the date you separated from your spouse or civil partner.

If you are a prisoner’s spouse or civil partner, you should apply when your spouse or civil partner:

- has been in custody for at least six months without being sentenced; or
- starts their sentence, which must be for a term of at least six months.
