

Competition for Principal Adviser (Water), Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage

The Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage is inviting applications for the position of Principal Adviser (Water).

The Department's mission is to support the sustainable and efficient delivery of well-planned homes and effective local government. The Department has overall responsibility for policy in the areas of housing, local government, planning, water and natural and built heritage and the provision of high quality meteorological information through Met Eireann.

The Principal Adviser (Water) will report to the Assistant Secretary, Water Division. The Principal Adviser (Water) is a leadership role within the Water Division tasked with providing professional, strategic policy and legislative advice to ensure that Ireland's water policy framework delivers safe and secure water and wastewater services; and protects, enhances and restores water quality. This includes implementation and delivery of EU Directives on water and key policy objectives both directly and through other Departments, agencies and public authorities.
