Competition for position Principal Local Government Auditor (Local Government Audit Service) – Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage

Title of Position: Principal Local Government Auditor (Local Government Audit Service)

Department: Housing, Local Government and Heritage

Background Information and Role

The Local Government Audit Service is a unit within the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage. Its remit is to provide an external audit service to local authorities and other local government bodies. The Local Government Audit Service is led by the Director of Audits. Principal Local Government Auditors are assigned audit districts by the Director of Audits in accordance with Section 116 of the Local Government Act, 2001. These districts overlap county borders and provinces and can be subject to change.

The Local Government (Financial Provisions) Act 1997 provides the legislative requirement for the establishment of a Local Government (Value for Money) Unit within the Department and empowers Local Government Auditors to examine economy and efficiency in the use of resources and the adequacy of management systems to appraise the local authorities' effectiveness.

The role will split between financial auditing and the Value for Money unit. This role is suitable for blended working and the location of the headquarters is flexible and can be based in Dublin, Cork, the Midlands or the West.

The Role

This is a senior management position with the Local Government Audit Service (LGAS). Principal Local Government Auditors are appointed under Section 116 of the Local Government Act, 2001 to audit the annual financial statements of local authorities and other public bodies in accordance with the Code of Audit Practice for the LGAS. Bodies to be audited include City Council, County Councils and other bodies.

As the Principal Local Government Auditor, you will be responsible for delivering a high-quality Value for Money work programme in consultation with the various stakeholders. The Principal Local Government Auditor will be responsible for directing and managing research, data collection, and analysis on all VFM topics and delivering reports. A key requirement of these reports is to make recommendations for improvements and change.

In addition, the role will also include financial auditing and the certification of the annual financial statements of local authorities.

Principal Local Government Auditors are required to work on their own initiative.

The Principal Local Government Auditor will also have responsibility for the management and development of staff in the unit and possess the necessary communication skills to deal effectively with stakeholders.

Principal Local Government Auditors are required to take a lead role in the ongoing strategic development of the Local Government Audit Service including professional auditing standards and quality assurance.

Principal Duties:

Financial/Regularity Audit:

- Lead, co-ordinate, manage and supervise the work of the Local Government Auditors in order to ensure the provision of effective and timely professional audits;
- Manage staff performance, including through the effective implementation of the Performance Management Development Scheme (PMDS) and staff development programmes addressing essential training needs;
- Audit of accounts of bodies under the aegis of the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage or other appropriate Minister;
- The certification of the annual financial statements, the furnishing of a statutory audit report on the main features of the accounts (and any public interest matters therein);
- Attending/assisting the work of Audit Committees;
- Carry out such assignments as directed by the Director of Audit, in relation to the audit remit.

Value for Money Work:

To lead the Value for Money Unit, within the Local Government Audit Service. The duties may include any of the following:

- Deliver an annual Value for Money work programme developed in consultation with stakeholders;
- Direct and manage high quality research, data collection, and analysis;
- Manage the central research unit in producing high quality national and other reports on local authorities' systems, practices and procedures including recommendations for improvement and change;
- Work with local authorities on a regional basis, on the implementation of the recommendations contained in the VFM reports.

The headquarters for this role is flexible and can be based in Dublin, Cork, the Midlands or the West. This role is suitable for blended working. The role will involve working in a number of local authority offices, which may necessitate travel.

Essential Entry Requirements:

Candidates must on or before 1st March 2024 have:

- A record of achievement in their career to date, demonstrating high level management skills including the ability to provide effective leadership and direction in a complex Audit unit.
- Full membership of a professional accountancy body supervised by the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA);
- At least five years post qualifications experience in auditing at a senior level, including the application of professional auditing standards;
- Excellent report writing skills;
- Ability to deliver on time and to a high standard;
- Ability to understand complex issues quickly, accurately absorbing and evaluating data;
- Strong communication skills, including: influencing, persuasion and problem solving;

- Proven ability to lead teams, develop team skills and influence organisational change;
- Knowledge of statute law governing the activities of local government bodies being audited;
- Ability to relate well with colleagues and with clients' staff;
- Ability to maintain good strategic overview of Audit and remain objective throughout the process.

Desirable:

- Experience of dealing with senior management and people in other disciplines;
- Knowledge of computer based audit techniques.

Candidates must also demonstrate the key competencies for effective performance at this level which are detailed below and the attached competencies framework document which are:

- Leadership and Strategic Direction
- Management and Delivery of Results
- Building Relationships/Communication
- Judgment and Decision Making
- Specialist Knowledge, Expertise and Self-Development
- Drive and Commitment to Public Service Values

Details of these competencies are set out in Appendix 2

Eligibility to Compete and Certain Restrictions on Eligibility

To qualify candidates must be eligible by the date of any job offer.

Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants:

The Department of Public Expenditure and Reform letter dated 28th June 2012 to Personnel Officers introduced, with effect from 1st June 2012, a Collective Agreement which had been reached between the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform and the Public Services Committee of the ICTU in relation to ex-gratia Redundancy Payments to Public Servants. It is a condition of the Collective Agreement that persons availing of the agreement will not be eligible for re-employment in the Public Service by any Public Service body (as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011) for a period of 2 years from termination of the employment. People who availed of this scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility).

Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER):

It is a condition of the Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER) as set out in Department of Finance Circular 12/09 that retirees, under that Scheme, are not eligible to apply for another position in the same employment or the same sector. Therefore, such retirees may not apply for this position.

Department of Health and Children Circular (7/2010):

The Department of Health Circular 7/2010 dated 1 November 2010 introduced a Targeted Voluntary Early Retirement (VER) Scheme and Voluntary Redundancy Schemes (VRS). It is a condition of the VER scheme that persons availing of the scheme will not be eligible for reemployment in the public health sector or in the wider Public Service or in a body wholly or mainly funded from public moneys. The same prohibition on re-employment applies under the VRS, except that the prohibition is for a period of 7 years. People who availed of the VER scheme are not eligible to compete in this competition. People who availed of the VRS scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility).

Department of Environment, Community & Local Government (Circular Letter LG(P) 06/2013) :

The Department of Environment, Community & Local Government Circular Letter LG(P) 06/2013 introduced a Voluntary Redundancy Scheme for Local Authorities. In accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants dated 28 June 2012 as detailed above, it is a specific condition of that VER Scheme that persons will not be eligible for re-employment in any Public Service body [as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011 and the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012] for a period of 2 years from their date of departure under this Scheme. These conditions also apply in the case of engagement/employment on a contract for service basis (either as a contractor or as an employee of a contractor).

Declaration:

Applicants will be required to declare whether they have previously availed of a Public Service scheme of incentivised early retirement. Applicants will also be required to declare any entitlements to a Public Service pension benefit (in payment or preserved) from any other Public Service employment and/or where they have received a payment-in-lieu in respect of service in any Public Service employment.

Employer of Choice

As an Employer of Choice the Civil Service has many flexible and family friendly policies e.g. Worksharing, Shorter Working Year, Remote Working (operated on a 'blended' basis), etc. All elective policies can be applied for in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions and are subject to the business needs of the organisation.

The Civil Service also operates a Mobility scheme for all general service grades. This scheme provides staff with career opportunities to learn and partake in diverse roles across a range of Civil Service organisations and geographical locations.

Principal Conditions of Service

General

The appointment is to a permanent post in the Civil Service and is subject to the Civil Service Regulations Acts 1956 to 2005, the Public Service Management (Recruitment and Appointments) Act 2004 and any other Act for the time being in force relating to the Civil Service.

Pay

Personal Pension Contribution (PPC) Pay Scale:

The salary scale for the position (rates effective from 1st October 2023) is as follows:

€98,665 €102,852 €107,006 €111,191 €114,722 (NMAX)

€118,384 (LSI1)

€122,041 (LSI2)

The PPC pay rate applies when the individual is required to pay a Personal Pension Contribution (otherwise known as a main scheme contribution) in accordance with the rules of their main/personal superannuation scheme. This is different to a contribution in respect of membership of a Spouses' and Children's scheme, or the Additional Superannuation Contributions (ASC).

A different rate will apply where the appointee is not required to make a Personal Pension Contribution.

Long service increments may be payable after 3(LSI-1) and 6(LSI-2) years satisfactory service at the maximum of the scale.

Important Note

Entry will be at the minimum of the scale and the rate of remuneration will not be subject to negotiation and may be adjusted from time to time in line with Government pay policy.

Different terms and conditions may apply if you are a currently serving civil or public servant. Subject to satisfactory performance increments may be payable in line with current Government Policy.

Payment will be made fortnightly in arrears by Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) into a bank account of the appointee's choice. Payment cannot be made until a bank account number, bank sort code, IBAN (International Bank Account Number) and BIC (Bank Identifier Code) has been supplied to the Human Resources Division of the relevant Department/Office. Statutory deductions from salary will be made as appropriate by the Department.

The appointee will agree that any overpayment of salary, allowances, or expenses will be repaid by you in accordance with Circular 07/2018: Recovery of Salary, Allowances, and Expenses Overpayments made to Staff Members/Formers Staff Members/Pensioners.

Tenure & Probation

The appointment is to a permanent position in the Civil Service where the appointee will be required to serve a 12 month probationary period. During the period of the probationary contract, an officer's performance will be subject to review by the appropriate supervisor(s) to determine whether the officer:

- (i) has performed in a satisfactory manner,
- (ii) has been satisfactory in general conduct, and
- (iii) is suitable from the point of view of health with particular regard to sick leave.

Prior to completion of the probationary contract, a decision will be made as to whether or not you will be retained pursuant to Section 5A(2) of the Civil Service Regulation Acts 1956-2005. This decision will be based on your performance assessed against the criteria set out in (i) to (iii) above.

The details of the probationary process will be explained to you by your employing Department and you will be given a copy of guidelines on probation issued by the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform.

In the event that you are not considered as suitable to the position of Principal Local Government Auditor having been assessed against stated criteria, you will be notified in writing of the action to be taken prior to the expiry of this contract and any extensions thereof.

Notwithstanding the paragraphs above, the probationary contract may be terminated at any time prior to the expiry of the terms of the contract by either side in accordance with the Minimum Notice and Terms of Employment Acts, 1973 to 2005.

In the following circumstances your contract may be extended and your probation period suspended.

- The probationary period stands suspended when an employee is absent due to Maternity or Adoptive Leave.
- In relation to an employee absent on Parental Leave or Carers Leave, the employer may require probation to be suspended if the absence is not considered to be consistent with the continuation of the probation.
- Probation may be suspended in cases such as absence due to a non-recurring illness, and
- Any other statutory provision providing that probation shall -
 - (i) stand suspended during an employee's absence from work, and
 - (ii) be completed by the employee on the employees return from work after such absence.

Where probation is suspended the employer should notify the employee of the circumstances relating to the suspension.

All appointees will serve a one-year probationary period. If an appointee who fails to satisfy the conditions of probation has been a serving civil servant immediately prior to their appointment from this competition, the issue of reversion will normally arise. In the event of reversion, an officer will return to a vacancy in their former grade in their former Department.

Outside Employment

The position will be whole time and the appointee may not engage in private practice or be connected with any outside business, which conflicts in any way with his/her official duties, impairs performance or compromises his/her integrity.

Location

The headquarters for this role is flexible and can be based in Dublin, Cork, the Midlands or the West. This role is suitable for blended working. The role will involve working in a number of local authority offices, which may necessitate travel. . When absent from home and headquarters on duty appropriate travelling expenses will be paid, subject to the normal civil service regulations.

Hours of Attendance

Hours of attendance will be as fixed from time to time but will amount, on average, to not less than 41 hours and 15 minutes gross or 35 hours net of lunch breaks. Flexibility will be required with regard to extra attendance, which may be required from time to time. The rate of remuneration payable covers any exceptional extra attendance liability that may arise and no additional payment will be made for extra attendance (over and above 41 hours and 15 minutes gross or 35 hours net per week).

Annual Leave

Annual leave will be 30 days per year. This allowance, which is subject to the usual conditions regarding the granting of annual leave, is on the basis of a five-day week and is exclusive of the usual public holidays.

Duties

The appointee will be expected to perform all acts, duties and obligations as appropriate to this position (which may be revised from time to time).

Unfair Dismissals Acts 1977-2015

The Unfair Dismissals Acts 1977–2015 will not apply to the termination of this employment by reason only of the expiry of this probationary contract without it being renewed.

Organisation of Working Time Act 1997

The terms of the organisation of Working Time Act, 1997 will apply, where appropriate, to this employment.

Sick Leave

Pay during properly certified sick absence, provided there is no evidence of permanent disability for service, will apply on a pro-rata basis, in accordance with the provisions of the sick leave circulars for the public service.

Officers who will be paying Class A rate of PRSI will be required to sign a mandate authorising the Department of Social Protection to pay any benefits due under the Social Welfare Acts directly to the Department of Housing Local Government and Heritage. Payment during illness will be subject to the officer making the necessary claims for social insurance benefit to the Department of Social Protection within the required time limits.

Official Secrecy and Integrity

During the term of the probationary contract, an officer will be subject to the Provisions of the Official Secrets Act, 1963, as amended by the Freedom of Information Act 2014. The officer will agree not to disclose to unauthorised third parties any confidential information, especially information with commercial potential, either during or subsequent to the period of employment.

Civil Service Code of Standards and Behaviour

The officer will be subject to the Civil Service Code of Standards and Behaviour.

Ethics in Public Office Act 1995 to 2001

The Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 to 2001 will apply, where appropriate, to this employment.

Political activity

During the term of employment the officer will be subject to the rules governing civil servants and politics.

Personnel Code

Further details and circulars regarding these terms and conditions can be found on the following web site www.circulars.gov.ie.

The successful candidate will be offered the appropriate superannuation terms and conditions as prevailing in the Civil Service at the time of being offered an appointment. In general, an appointee who has never worked in the Public Service will be offered appointment based on membership of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme ("Single Scheme"). Full details of the Scheme are at www.singlepensionscheme.gov.ie.

Where the appointee has worked in a pensionable (non-single scheme terms) public service job in the 26 weeks prior to appointment or is currently on a career break or special leave with/without pay different terms may apply. The pension entitlement of such appointees will be established in the context of their public service employment history.

Key provisions attaching to membership of the Single Scheme are as follows:

- Pensionable Age The minimum age at which pension is payable is the same as the age of eligibility for the State Pension, currently 66.
- Retirement Age: Scheme members must retire at the age of 70.
- Career average earnings are used to calculate benefits (a pension and lump sum amount accrue each year and are up-rated each year by reference to CPI).
- Post retirement pension increases are linked to CPI.

Pension Abatement:

- If the appointee has previously been employed in the Civil or Public Service and is in receipt of a pension from the Civil or Public Service or where a Civil/Public Service pension comes into payment during his/her re-employment that pension will be subject to abatement in accordance with Section 52 of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012. Please note: In applying for this position you are acknowledging that you understand that the abatement provisions, where relevant, will apply. It is not envisaged that the employing Department/Office will support an application for an abatement waiver in respect of appointments to this position.
- However, if the appointee was previously employed in the Civil or Public Service and awarded a pension under voluntary early retirement arrangements (other than the Incentivised Scheme of Early Retirement (ISER), the Department of Health Circular 7/2010 VER/VRS or the Department of Environment, Community & Local Government Circular letter LG(P) 06/2013, any of which renders a person ineligible for the competition) the entitlement to that pension will cease with effect from the date of reappointment. Special arrangements may, however be made for the reckoning of previous service given by the appointee for the purpose of any future superannuation award for which the appointee may be eligible.

- Department of Education and Skills Early Retirement Scheme for Teachers Circular 102/2007

The Department of Education and Skills introduced an Early Retirement Scheme for Teachers. It is a condition of the Early Retirement Scheme that with the exception of the situations set out in paragraphs 10.2 and 10.3 of the relevant circular documentation, and with those exceptions only, if a teacher accepts early retirement under Strands 1, 2 or 3 of this scheme and is subsequently employed in any capacity in any area of the public sector, payment of pension to that person under the scheme will immediately cease. Pension payments will, however, be resumed on the ceasing of such employment or on the person's 60th birthday, whichever is the later, but on resumption, the pension will be based on the person's actual reckonable service as a teacher (i.e. the added years previously granted will not be taken into account in the calculation of the pension payment).

- III- Health Retirement

Please note any person who previously retired on ill health grounds under the terms of a superannuation scheme are required to declare, at the initial application phase, that they are in receipt of such a pension to the organisation administering the recruitment competition.

Applicants will be required to attend the CMO's office to assess their ability to provide regular and effective service taking account of the condition which qualified them for IHR.

Appointment post ill-health retirement from Civil Service

If successful in their application through the competition, the applicant should be aware of the following:

1. If deemed fit to provide regular and effective service and assigned to a post, their civil service ill-health pension ceases.
2. If the applicant subsequently fails to complete probation or decides to leave their assigned post, there can be no reversion to the civil service IHR status, nor reinstatement of the civil service IHR pension, that existed prior to the application nor is there an entitlement to same.
3. The applicant will become a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (SPSPS) upon appointment if they have had a break in pensionable public/civil service of more than 26 weeks.

Appointment post Ill-health retirement from public service:

1. Where an individual has retired from a public service body his/her ill-health pension from that employment may be subject to review in accordance with the rules of ill-health retirement under that scheme.
2. If an applicant is successful, on appointment the applicant will be required to declare whether they are in receipt of a public service pension (ill-health or otherwise) and their public service pension may be subject to abatement.
3. The applicant will become a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (SPSPS) upon appointment if they have had a break in pensionable public/civil service of more than 26 weeks.

Please note more detailed information in relation to pension implications for those in receipt of a civil or public service ill-health pension is available via this link or upon request to PAS.

Pension Accrual:

A 40-year limit on total service that can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one existing public service pension scheme would apply. This 40-year limit, which is provided for in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012 came into effect on 28 July 2012. This may have implications for any appointee who has acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment.

Additional Superannuation Contribution:

This appointment is subject to the Additional Superannuation Contribution (ASC) in accordance with the Public Service Pay and Pensions Act 2017. Note; ASC deductions are in addition to any pension contributions (main scheme and spouses' and children's contributions) required under the rules of your pension scheme.

For further information in relation to the Single Public Service Pension Scheme for Public Servants please see the following website: www.singlepensionscheme.gov.ie
