

Working as a substitute while receiving a teacher's pension

In 2024, most retired teachers can work as a teacher for up to 50 days in the current calendar year, without pension 'abatement' rules applying*.

Substitute posts are advertised on subseeker.ie

For more information, and worked examples of how working as a substitute interacts with your pension, see gov.ie/retiredteachers, or scan the code below

*Most retired teachers can return to teach, however please refer to the conditions attached to your retirement
