   “employee” means a person who has entered into or works under (or, where the employment has ceased, entered into or worked under) a contract of employment and includes a fixed-term employee, a temporary employee, a person who is training for employment or receiving work experience and a member of the family of an employer and references, in relation to an employer, to an employee shall be construed as references to an employee employed by that employer;
   “employer”, in relation to an employee—
   (a) means the person with whom the employee has entered into or for whom the employee works under (or, where the employment has ceased, entered into or worked under) a contract of employment,
   (b) includes a person (other than an employee of that person) under whose control and direction an employee works, and
   (c) includes where appropriate, the successor of the employer or an associated employer of the employer;
   “Executive” means the Health Service Executive;
   “hire” includes to offer for hire or to hire or to supply, whether or not for profit, and cognate words shall be construed accordingly;
   “Minister” means the Minister for Health;
   “premises” includes a building, a dwelling or other structure, or part of a building, dwelling or other structure, a vessel, a vehicle, a tent, caravan or other temporary or movable structure;
“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Minister;
“restricted area” means—
(a) a wholly or partly enclosed space on a sunbed premises where there is a sunbed, or
(b) a room, other than a space referred to in paragraph (a), in a sunbed premises where there is a sunbed;
“sale” includes to offer for sale or to sell or to supply, whether or not for profit, and cognate words shall be construed accordingly;
“sunbed” means an electrically-powered device designed to produce tanning of the human skin by the emission of ultra-violet radiation;
“sunbed business” means, as the context requires, a business where one or more than one sunbed is made available for use or a business which sells or hires sunbeds or advertises or promotes the use, sale or hire of sunbeds;
“sunbed premises” means premises on which a sunbed business is carried on.

Regulations
2. (1) The Minister may, after consultation with such Ministers of the Government as the Minister considers appropriate, make regulations prescribing any matter or thing which is referred to in this Act as prescribed or to be prescribed.

(2) Regulations under this Act may contain such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as appear to the Minister to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the regulation.

(3) Every regulation under this Act shall be laid before the Houses of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annuling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annuled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(a) the parent or guardian of the person has consented, in writing, to him or her being sent into those premises for that purpose, and

(b) the authorised officer is satisfied that all reasonable steps have been or will be taken to avoid harm to the welfare of the person.

(2) The Minister shall, after consulting with the Minister for Children and Youth Affairs, from time to time issue guidelines in respect of the procedures to be followed with respect to the practical operation of this section, including guidelines as to—

(a) prohibiting any active instigation of a contravention of this Act such as a false representation, whether made orally or by means of the production of any document, that a person is over the age of 18 years, and

(b) the basis on which sunbed premises will be selected for the purposes of the application of this section, whether by reference to the location of the premises, complaints received by the Executive concerning the premises, the number of reports of possible contraventions of this Act relating to the premises or the clientele attracted to the premises.

Service of documents

19. (1) A notice or other document under this Act shall be addressed to the person concerned by name, and may be served on or given to the person in one of the following ways:

(a) by delivering it to the person;

(b) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, at that address;

(c) by sending it by post in a prepaid registered letter to the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, to that address.
(2) For the purposes of this section, a company within the meaning of the Companies Acts shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office, and every other body corporate and every unincorporated body shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

Fixed payment notice for offences

20. (1) This section applies in respect of an offence under section 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14 or 15 (in this section referred to as a “relevant offence”).

(2) An authorised officer who has reasonable grounds for believing that a person is committing, or has committed, a relevant offence may serve the notice referred to in subsection (3) on the person.

(3) A notice in writing (in this section referred to as a “fixed payment notice”), served under subsection (2), shall be in the prescribed form, stating—

(a) that the person on whom it is served is alleged to have committed the relevant offence concerned,

(b) when and where it is alleged to have been committed,

(c) that a prosecution for it will not be instituted if, during the period of 28 days beginning on the date of the fixed payment notice, the person pays the prescribed amount to the Executive (at the address stated in the notice) and submits the fixed payment notice or a copy thereof together with that payment, and

(d) that in default of such payment, the person shall be prosecuted for the alleged relevant offence.

(4) A payment referred to in subsection (3) shall be accompanied by the fixed payment notice served under subsection (2) or a copy thereof.

(5) If a fixed payment notice is served on a person—

(a) the person may make a payment in accordance with subsection (3)(c),

(b) the Executive shall receive and retain the payment (subject to subsection (8)) and issue a receipt for it,

(c) any payment received shall not be recoverable by the person who made it, and

(d) a prosecution in respect of the alleged relevant offence to which the notice relates shall not be instituted during the period specified in subsection (3)(c) and, if payment is made during that period, no prosecution in respect of the alleged relevant offence will be instituted.

(6) In proceedings against a person for a relevant offence it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that the person did not make payment in accordance with subsections (3)(c) and (4).

(7) The Minister may prescribe the amount of a fixed payment and may prescribe different amounts for different offences.

(8) Payments received by the Executive under this section shall be paid into or disposed
Executive may publish information respecting certain persons

21. (1) The Executive shall keep and maintain a list (the “Sunbed Non-Compliance List”) of the names and addresses of the following persons and the particulars specified in subsection (2):

(a) a person on whom a fine or other penalty was imposed by a court under this Act;
(b) a person who made a payment to the Executive pursuant to a fixed payment notice under section 20.

(2) The Sunbed Non-Compliance List shall specify, in relation to each person named in the list, such particulars as the Executive considers appropriate in respect of the following:

(a) the matter occasioning any fine or penalty imposed on the person by the court and the amount or nature of that fine or penalty;
(b) the matter occasioning any fixed payment notice under this Act and the amount of that payment.

(3) The Executive may, at any time and in any form or manner the Executive considers appropriate, publish or cause to be published all or any part of the Sunbed Non-Compliance List.

Offences

22. (1) Summary proceedings for an offence under this Act may be brought by the Executive.

(2) Notwithstanding section 10(4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851, summary proceedings for any offence under this Act may be commenced at any time within 12 months from the date on which the offence was committed.

(3) A person who commits an offence under this Act is liable on summary conviction, in the case of a first offence, to a Class B fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or both, and in the case of a second or subsequent offence, to Class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(4) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been so committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any person, being a director, manager, secretary, or other officer of the body corporate, or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person shall, as well as the body corporate, commit an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she had committed the first-mentioned offence.

Costs

23. Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court shall, unless it is satisfied that there are special and substantial reasons for not doing so, order the person to pay to the Executive the costs and expenses, measured by the court, incurred by the Executive in relation to the investigation, detection or prosecution of the offence.

Expenses

24. The expenses incurred by the Minister in the administration of this Act shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

Short title and commencement

25. (1) This Act may be cited as the Public Health (Sunbeds) Act 2014.

(2) This Act comes into operation on such day or days as the Minister may by order or orders appoint, either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision, and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or different provisions.
