What is EURES?

The European Commission set up EURES to make it easy for workers to move employment in the European Union (EU) and European Economic Area (EEA) countries.

In Ireland, the European Employment Services of the Department of Social Protection coordinates EURES.

At European level, EURES:

- is a cooperation of public employment services in all EU/EEA countries
- comprises more than 900 specially trained European EURES Advisers
- maintains a European database of employment opportunities
- hosts a CV database of European jobseekers

Visit: www.eures.europa.eu for more information and contact details for EURES advisers.

All EURES services are free of charge

Providing a European-wide recruitment service for employers

Advertise your vacancy in Europe

You can advertise your vacancies:

- on the EURES job mobility portal where jobseekers in Europe can find it. To advertise your vacancies with EURES, you must advertise them first on the Jobs Ireland website, www.jobsireland.ie
- by contacting a EURES Adviser – email eures@welfare.ie for contact details.

Jobs fairs in Ireland and Europe

EURES Ireland holds and takes part in online and onsite European jobs fairs throughout the year in Ireland and across Europe. These include both industry and sector specific jobs fairs and recruitment events.

If you are interested in taking part in any of these events or would like more information, contact a EURES adviser or:

- email eures@welfare.ie

Focused recruitment campaigns in Europe

We can often create specially tailored European recruitment projects for individual employers. This means we will advertise your vacancy in one or more European countries. We will collect and screen CVs for you and organise interviews in Europe on your behalf.

If required, we can organise an individual jobs fair for your company in any of the EU/EEA countries.

Contact your local EURES Adviser or email eures@welfare.ie for more information.

EURES Advisers

EURES Advisers are trained specialists in European recruitment and job mobility. They are available to help employers by offering expert advice on recruiting in Europe for specialised or hard-to-fill vacancies.

They are part of the European network of more than 900 EURES Advisers, working together to satisfy recruitment needs of employers.
