Data Protection

The Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection administers Ireland's social protection system. The Department requires customers to provide certain personal data in order to determine eligibility for relevant payments and/or benefits. A customer's personal data may be exchanged with other Government Departments in certain circumstances where this is provided for by law. Full details of the Department's data protection policy setting out how we will use a customer's personal data as well as information regarding their rights as a data subject are available at <https://www.gov.ie/en/organisation-information/9028df-data-protection-in-the-department-of-employment-affairs-and-social-p/>. Details of this policy are also available in hard copy upon request.

Freedom of Information Act, 2014 (FOI)

The DEASP undertakes to use its best endeavours to hold confidential any information provided by companies (correspondence/forms/tenders, etc.), subject to the DEASP's obligations under law, including the Freedom of Information Act, 2014. Should a company wish that any of the information it supplied not be disclosed because of its sensitivity, the company should, when providing the information, identify the same and specify the reasons for its sensitivity. The DEASP will consult with the company's representative about this sensitive information before making a decision on any FOI request received. Please note, however, that if no information is identified as sensitive, with supporting reasons, then it can potentially be released in response to a FOI request.

Rights of Access

An employer shall grant officials of DEASP access to records, financial or otherwise, pertaining to the Wage Subsidy Scheme. At the request of DEASP, the employer will provide rights of access and inspection to DEASP, its officers and agents and the Comptroller and Auditor General to all activities, records, persons and information which DEASP may reasonably require to verify compliance by the Company with the terms and conditions agreed in relation to the Scheme.

All records, both manual and electronic, relating to funding provided under the Wage Subsidy Scheme must be retained for as long as the wage subsidy is in payment and for six years after, and must be available for inspection.

Welfare Partners is the external website available to Wage Subsidy Scheme employers.. I understand that my employer must use WelfarePartners.ie to electronically submit wage subsidy funding requests in respect of me. These will include the detail of hours I have worked and gross wages I have been paid in a specific four week period/cycle.

Payment of WSS may be suspended or stopped if the employer does not agree to any reasonable request from an officer or agent of the DEASP to access any records they hold pertaining to WSS.
