Part D: Terms of Use

By receiving the ObSERVE data the requester agrees to be bound by the following terms of use which may not be varied, except by prior agreement between the Department of Communications, Climate Action and Environment and the requester.

- i. The Department of Communications, Climate Action and Environment shall retain all rights including ownership and copyright of the ObSERVE data.
- ii. The requester shall not use ObSERVE data in any publications prior to 1 May 2019.
- iii. All publications using the ObSERVE data shall acknowledge the contribution of the ObSERVE data originating from the ObSERVE Project undertaken by the Department of Communications, Climate Action and Environment and the National Parks and Wildlife Service, Department of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht.
- iv. The ObSERVE data is offered in good faith to interested individuals/ organisations for private use. Such data shall not be sold, in whole or in part or otherwise made available to any other party. Any individual/organisation seeking to incorporate these data into an added value application should first contact the Department of Communications, Climate Action and Environment to request permission and negotiate terms, if applicable.
- v. The requester accepts that the data is provided “as is”, without warranty of any kind. All warranties, express or implied, written or oral, including warranties of fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement and merchantability are hereby expressly disclaimed and negated. In no event will the Department be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, lost profit, lost royalties, lost data, punitive and/or consequential damages, even if advised of the possibility of same.
- vi. In cases that the ObSERVE data is used as part of a Report, Thesis or Publication; there is a requirement from the Department that it receives a copy of the report in the form of an electronic copy.
- vii. The Department of Communications, Climate Action and the Environment requires customers to provide certain personal data in order to provide services and carry out the functions of the Department. Your personal data may be exchanged with other Government Departments and Agencies in certain circumstances, where lawful.
- viii. This personal data will be retained by the Department for as long as it is necessary for the purposes for which it was collected and subsequently processed. When the business need to retain this information has expired, the personal data that has been collected will be examined with a view to destroying it as soon as possible, and in line with Department policy.

Further information about Data Protection can be found on the Department’s website at <https://www.dccae.gov.ie/en-ie/about-us/compliance/data-protection/Pages/default.aspx>.
