Exquisite Lariat necklace

with two perfectly formed teardrop freshwater cultured pearls, set in 925 Sterling Silver

The most perfect pearl shape is round or 'teardrop' and their worth increases with size and lustre. Teardrop pearls are particularly valued when presented as a 'matching' pair of lustrous gems, such as on this stunning, contemporary lariat necklace.

The necklace drapes elegantly around the neck and the two teardrop pearls, each carefully selected for their lustre and iridescence, are positioned asymmetrically (with 2.2cm and 4.5cm pearl drops) and held securely in place with a beautifully crafted, double silver bar.

To complete the look, the necklace is set on a chunky 925 sterling silver popcorn corana chain measuring 42cm. The luminous warmth of pearls makes this necklace a classic, perfect for any occasion.

Each lustrous pearl measures D10mm W8mm and the necklace is presented in a velvet pouch.
