Any person who, on the above basis, wishes to make an objection to, or a representation in respect of the grant reasons, within 21 working days of publication of this Notice (quoting ref: FS 005721), to the Foreshore Unit, Department of the Environment, Community and Local Government, Newtown Road, Wexford, Co. Wexford or foreshore@envron.ie. The closing date for submissions is close of business on Friday 31st January 2014.

All objections and representations received will be forwarded to the applicant for comment prior to any decision being made in the matter. Material upon which the Minister shall determine this application may be published on the Department's website. In this regard the Department wishes to draw attention to its policy on defamatory material that may be contained in submissions it receives, which may be found at: <http://www.envron.ie/fs-17>.

An Bord Pleanála, in its decision, dated 4 March 2013, granted approval to Clare County Council for the project under section 226 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000. However, in order to secure permission to occupy and use this property, the consent of the Minister under the Foreshore Act, 1933 (as amended) is required. Accordingly, Clare County Council has submitted an application to the Minister for consent under the Foreshore Act.

A copy of the application, and the relevant maps, plans, and drawings, are available for inspection for the next 21 working days, free of charge, at Ennistymon Garda Station, Ennistymon, Co. Clare

The documentation is also available on the Department's website at: <http://www.environ.ie/en/Foreshore/ApplicationsandDeterminations/>.

Under the terms of Section 227(8)(b) of the Planning Act, 2000 and the Foreshore Act, 1933 (as amended), the Minister will confine his consideration of this application for a property assignment, to public interest aspects of issues such as public access, protection of beach material and the financial terms that may attach to the consent.
