Robert,

Please find attached a soft copy of my letter of today's date containing the observations of the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine. The hard copy will issue in today's post.

As discussed during our recent telephone conversation, I am expecting the valuation shortly and will promptly forward it when it is to hand.

As you are aware the public consultation closes today. To date, no public submissions have been received. However, I will revert to you early next week to confirm if any submissions have been received.

Regards
Pat
