Iveleary Junior A footballers started out on their 2016 Mid Cork league campaign on Saturday last, with a game at Inchigeela against a visiting Aghinagh side. While both sides were short a few of their 2015 champion sides, there was a competitive edge to the game and it was a good workout. At the end, Iveleary proved to be too strong for the visitors, recording a 0-16 to 0-8 victory and registered their first two points of the league.
