

Independent submission from a person working in the HSE

Copied from direct email

- There is confusion between the Protected Disclosures Act and Part 14 of the Health Act
- The pathway is unclear for section 38 and 39 agencies.
- It is important to note that there have been instances where Protected Disclosures have been made after a person has been called for disciplinary review. Although the protected disclosure is not upheld, it results in a delay to the disciplinary process.