with a crowd of more than 150 in attendance. Gerry O'Boyle, of Land League West said the organisation has logged 317 calls and correspondences from people in the county who have received notices in recent weeks threatening legal action if their property is not given back to the lender.

"These are only the ones we know about. I had a woman on to me in tears because she didn't know whether she should put up a Christmas tree or not for her and her family," said Mr O'Boyle.

A total of 167 repossession cases came before a recent sitting of the County Registrar's Motion Court in Castlebar and that figure is expected to explode in the New Year.

Sports grants for older persons' groups

MINISTER of State for Tourism and Sport Michael Ring has announced a series of sports grants worth €15,900 to benefit 55 older people groups across Mayo.

The grants are part of the Go for Life programme from the Irish Sports Council and Age and Opportunity. They provide funding to Active Retirement Announcing the investment, Minister of State Ring, stated: "I am delighted to announce funding for the "Go for Life" programme. Every week, this programme encourages thousands of older people in Mayo and across the country to keep active. This improves their social, mental and physical well-being and also builds stronger local
