BY-LAWS. No. 224

No. 15², or Coleraine District.

WHEREAS We, the Inspectors of Irish Fisheries, after having held public inquiry into the matter, are of opinion that the following By-laws are necessary and expedient for the protection and development of the fisheries of the No. 15², or Coleraine District, (which extends from the sea point of the Townland Boundary between the Townlands of Downhill and Drumagully, to the point of Portrush, and comprises the whole of the Sea along the Coast and the Tideway and Tidal portions of all Rivers flowing into the Sea between the said points, and the whole of the Freshwater portions of all Rivers and their Tributaries flowing into the Sea between the said points).

Now WE, the said Inspectors of Irish Fisheries, acting under the authority of the above named Acts, do make and ordain the following By-Laws, namely :—

1. It is hereby prohibited, to beat the Freshwaters of any River in the No. 15², or Coleraine District, with a stick or other implement, or to throw stones or other missiles therein, for the purpose of injuring fish which may be therein, or procuring the capture or killing thereof.

2. It is hereby prohibited in the Freshwaters of any River in the said No. 15², or Coleraine District, to catch, or attempt to catch fish with the hands (unless such catching or attempting to catch fish with the hands is being used as auxiliary to legal fishing).

Each and every person offending against either of the above By-Laws shall forfeit and pay for each offence a sum of TWO POUNDS.
